My Church Refuses To Obey Me, Insolent Children

“My son, My people won’t obey. I Am their Master, their LORD. So then why does My Church refuse to obey Me? I Am grieved with them with an everlasting grief, for My children, My Church refuses to obey Me. I called them with the Gospel- ‘go into all the world,’ and that they refuse to do. Why do My people refuse to obey Me? They are insolent children, full of pride, and wicked selfishness. They cannot tolerate to obey Me, in it only for the good times- My grace and joy. Yes, I do love them, but they cannot tolerate My hard commands to give up their lives of selfishness for ‘all the world.’ Yes, they refuse, insolent children of damnation, for they only care about self, not Me, what they can get out of Me for self. Yes, My insolent children are far from Me, with hearts full of praise for Me, but are damned forever, because they refuse to obey My commands. Yes, My insolent children will not make it to My Kingdom, because they are appointed unto damnation- few will make it in. My heart is grieved with My children of damnation, My Lost Church who refuse to obey. Truly their lips are close to Me, but they refuse to obey with hearts far from Me. Your LORD has spoken, amen, My son.”
